CREATE YOUR OWN FLEXIBLE TRAVEL PACKAGE

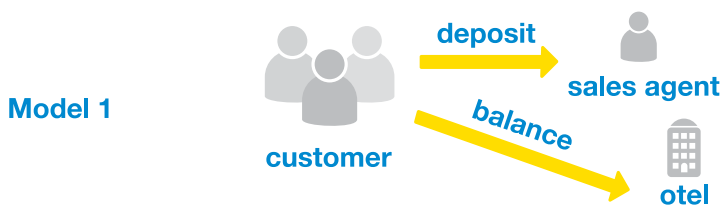

IATI is one of the rare systems where you can create dynamic travel packages including, flights, hotels and transport services. You can create your own travel package according to your customer needs and also get a price advantage over individual travel arrangements.

IATI Hotel Supply Model and Advantages

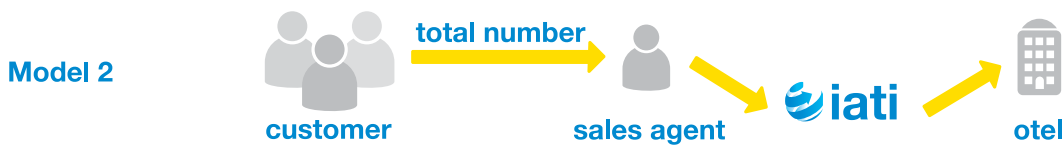

- 300.00 hotels all around world are offered to the agency

IATI Payment Models and Advantages

• In Model 1, customer pays the commission defined by the hotel to the agent as DEPOSIT, and then pays the balance directly to the hotel during check-in at hotel.

• As for model 2, the agency collects the whole amount from the customer, and after the account activities with IATI are finalized, IATI pays the hotel money before hotel check-in.

Note: Special prices defined as “non-refundable” by hotel and hotels bought from providers are collected by this model.

Benefits of Model 1:

- Decreasing the burden of bills
- Eliminating credit card charge back
- Relieving of financial cuts (credit card commission etc.), providing cost advantage

Agency immediately receives its commission progress payment in both models.
